LANDSCAPE DESIGN, INC.

Cynthia Egger Landscape Design has taken landscape design to a new level. She and her talented associates offer personal services to every client, taking into consideration their individual wants and desires. Given this information, she and her staff will then develop a landscape plan and take it from concept to completion.

Everybody has a gift. Egger's is being able to look at property and instantly visualize the completed project. She makes people's landscape dreams become a reality, each one a unique creation in itself.

Egger designs an outdoor environment that is not only an extension of the home but also fits the individual's personality, style, and taste. It can range in any size or style from cottage garden, Mediterranean, or Asian, to formal, and more.

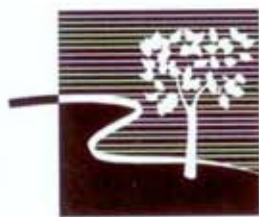

CYNTHIA EGGER
CEO

Recently Cynthia took on an editorial position with a national syndicated magazine. She is now writing a gardening and landscape column in their House to Home bi-monthly magazine. This is her way of helping her readers get all the answers to their landscaping and gardening questions.

Your aspirations become her creations.
